

AQA Inspired Questions – An Inspector Calls

Either:

A) Explore how personal responsibility is presented in An Inspector Calls?

Write about:

- How it is shown in the play
 - How Priestley presents personal responsibility
- (30 marks)

Or

B) How far does Priestley present Eric as a character who makes significant improvements?

Write about:

- How Eric improves in the play
 - How Priestley presents Eric
- (30 marks)

Either:

A) ‘Priestley shows that rigid class divides are the biggest problem in society’
How far do you agree with this view of An Inspector Calls?

Write about:

- What happens in the play
 - How Priestley presents what happens in the play
- (30 marks)

Or

B) How does Priestley present the ignorance of Mr Birling?

Write about:

- The ignorant things Mr Birling does in the play
 - How Priestley presents Mr Birling as ignorant
- (30 marks)

Either:

A) Explore how women are treated in An Inspector Calls

Write about:

- Examples of how women are treated
- How Priestley presents how women are treated

(30 marks)

Or

B) Explore how Sheila's relationship changes with her parents Mr and Mrs Birling
Write about:

- The changes in their relationship
- How Priestley presents these changes in their relationship

(30 marks)